

Belgian electrical distribution box and cabinet companies

AI Overview

Belgium hosts a variety of suppliers and manufacturers for electrical distribution boxes, cabinets, and enclosures, including Schneider Electric, GroupSumi, Electric S.A., and Eltec. Key Companies and Offerings Schneider Electric Belgium offers a wide range of enclosures under the PanelSeT brand (formerly Spacial and Thalassa), including metal, plastic, and polyester cabinets suitable for indoor and outdoor applications. Their products include floor-standing cabinets, wall-mounted steel enclosures, and insulating material enclosures for harsh environments. Schneider Electric also provides customization tools and accessories for configuring enclosures and thermal protection equipment, ensuring compliance with industrial standards and efficient installation processes. GroupSumi specializes in boxes, cabinets, and enclosures for electrical installations, offering both non-metallic and insulating options to protect components in corrosive or sensitive environments. They provide online purchasing and customer support to help select the most suitable enclosures for specific projects. Electric S.A. supplies a comprehensive range of electrical installation materials, including distribution boards, wall boxes, cavity boxes, switches, sockets, circuit breakers, and junction boxes. They cater to residential, commercial, and industrial projects and ensure fast delivery across Belgium. Eltec focuses on distribution cabinets and control panels, providing solutions tailored to individual project requirements. They also supply cables for internal wiring and external power connections, including high-temperature, flame-retardant, and UV-resistant options, ensuring safety and compliance with electrical standards.
