

Cable tray 800 price quote

AI Overview

The price of an 800mm cable tray varies by material and type, with stainless steel trays listed at approximately ₹300 per meter. Price Overview The cost of an 800mm cable tray depends on the material, type, and supplier. For example, stainless steel 800mm cable trays are available at around ₹300 per meter in India (Sanand, Gujarat) from Multitech Technologies . Prices for other materials such as steel, aluminum, or fiberglass may differ due to factors like strength, corrosion resistance, and weight .

Material and Type Considerations

- Steel trays: Strong and durable, suitable for heavy-duty industrial applications; often galvanized for corrosion resistance .
- Stainless steel trays: Premium corrosion resistance, ideal for chemical plants, food processing, or outdoor environments .
- Aluminum trays: Lightweight with good corrosion resistance, suitable for indoor and outdoor installations where ease of handling is important .
- Fiberglass reinforced plastic (FRP) trays: Chemical and moisture resistant, electrically insulating, and lightweight, making them easy to install in high-humidity or chemical-prone areas .
- Wire mesh trays: Allow ventilation and easy maintenance, often used in areas with frequent cable access .

Types of 800mm Cable Trays

- Ladder trays: Best for heavy cables, providing strong support.
- Perforated trays: Balance between support and ventilation.
- Solid-bottom trays: Offer complete protection for cables.
- Wire mesh trays: Facilitate heat dissipation and easy cable management .

Additional Considerations

When selecting an 800mm cable tray, consider:

- Load capacity: Ensure the tray can support the expected cable weight.
- Installation requirements: Space, accessibility, and mounting options affect the choice.
- Environment: Moisture, chemicals, and outdoor exposure influence material selection .

For bulk orders or specialized requirements, contacting suppliers directly can provide trade pricing or discounts. Prices may also vary by region and supplier, so it is advisable to compare multiple sources before purchasing.
