

How many types of cable tray elbows are there and what are their prices

AI Overview

Cable tray elbows are available in multiple types, materials, and sizes, with prices typically ranging from $15 to $120 per piece depending on type and material.

Types of Cable Tray Elbows

- Horizontal Elbows Used to change the direction of the cable tray in the horizontal plane. Common angles: 45°, 90°, 60°. Materials: Galvanized steel, stainless steel, aluminum, FRP (fiberglass-reinforced plastic). Typical price range: $20-$80 per piece depending on size and material.
- Vertical Elbows Used to change the elevation of the cable tray, either upward or downward. Types: Inside vertical elbow, outside vertical elbow. Materials: Galvanized steel, stainless steel, aluminum. Typical price range: $25-$100 per piece.
- Offset Elbows Used to navigate around obstacles or to offset the tray from its original path. Materials: Galvanized steel, aluminum. Typical price range: $30-$120 per piece.
- Specialty Elbows Includes adjustable elbows or custom-fabricated elbows for unique installations. Materials: Stainless steel, aluminum, FRP. Price varies widely based on customization.

Material Considerations

- Hot-dip galvanized steel: Durable, corrosion-resistant, commonly used in industrial and outdoor applications.
- Stainless steel: High corrosion resistance, suitable for chemical or marine environments.
- Aluminum: Lightweight, corrosion-resistant, ideal for indoor or lightweight installations.
- FRP (Fiberglass-reinforced plastic): Non-conductive, corrosion-resistant, used in chemical plants or wet environments.

Additional Notes

- Prices are generally per piece and may vary based on size, height, width, and coating.
- Elbows are part of a broader cable tray fitting system that includes tees, crosses, reducers, risers, covers, and connectors.
- Suppliers often provide custom fabrication for elbows to meet specific project requirements.
- For exact pricing, it is recommended to consult supplier catalogs such as JLH Cable Tray, Elcon Trays, or K...
