

New quote for cable tray installation in Sweden

AI Overview

You can request a new quote for cable tray installation in Sweden from suppliers like Nordic Wire Tray, Ahlsell, or other specialized manufacturers who offer tailored solutions and fast delivery. Key Suppliers and Options

1. Nordic Wire Tray (NWT) NWT provides a wide range of wire trays, data racks, and accessories suitable for various industries. Their X-Tray system offers customizable lengths, bends, and surface treatments, allowing installation to be adapted to unique project requirements. The system is designed for fast and cost-effective installation, requiring only an M8 bolt and two tools (bolt cutters and a 13 mm wrench). NWT can provide tailored solutions for any project size and offers quick delivery from stock for standard products. You can contact them directly through their website to request a quote.
2. Ahlsell Ahlsell supplies a broad range of cable trays, including sendzimir galvanized ladders, perforated rungs, and hot-dip galvanized options suitable for industrial, commercial, and coastal environments. They provide detailed specifications for load capacity, environmental class, and mounting accessories. Ahlsell also offers installation materials and accessories, making it convenient to source everything needed for a complete installation. Quotes can be requested via their online store or local branches.
3. Other Manufacturers and Suppliers Sweden hosts several specialized cable tray and wire management companies, such as Brilltech Engineers, Nexans, and Habia, which can provide customized solutions, technical support, and installation services. These suppliers often handle complex or high-performance projects, including industrial or infrastructure applications. Contacting them directly allows you to discuss project-specific requirements and obtain a tailored quote.
