

Nigerian pigtail jumper wire manufacturer

AI Overview

Several reputable Nigerian manufacturers supply pigtail jumper wires, including MicCom Cables, Coleman Wires & Cables, Nigerchin Electrical, Purechem Cables, and other suppliers listed on TradeFord. Key Manufacturers:

1. MicCom Cables & Wires Ltd Established in 1978, MicCom is a leading Nigerian manufacturer of electrical cables and wires, including copper and aluminum conductors suitable for jumper wire applications. Their products meet both local and international standards, with ISO certifications ensuring quality and safety. MicCom offers single-core and multi-core cables, which can be adapted for pigtail jumper wire needs.
2. Coleman Wires & Cables Coleman is Sub-Saharan Africa's largest cable manufacturer, headquartered in Nigeria. They produce a wide range of electrical and communication cables, including copper and aluminum wires suitable for jumper wire fabrication. Their facilities in Ogun State have high production capacity, and they are recognized for quality, reliability, and compliance with global standards.
3. Nigerchin Electrical Founded in 1970, Nigerchin is a pioneer in Nigerian cable manufacturing. They produce copper and aluminum conductors and electric cables to British Standards (BS), IEC, and Nigerian Industrial Standards (NIS). Their products are suitable for industrial, commercial, and residential wiring, including jumper wire applications.
4. Purechem Cable & Wires Purechem manufactures high-quality copper and aluminum cables and wires, including power and control cables. They offer custom solutions to meet specific project requirements, making them a potential source for pigtail jumper wires.
5. TradeFord Nigeria Directory For a broader selection, TradeFord provides a directory of Nigerian jumper wire suppliers and exporters. This platform connects buyers with manufacturers and exporters, allowing you to request quotations and s...
