

What are some Finnish cable tray manufacturers

AI Overview

Meka Pro Oy and Cablex Oy are notable Finnish manufacturers and suppliers of cable trays and cable management systems. Meka Pro Oy is a leading Finnish manufacturer specializing in high-quality cable support systems, including galvanized steel and acid-proof steel cable ladders, cable trays, wire mesh trays, lighting tracks, and aluminum-frame cable management systems. Founded in 1953, the company is headquartered in Oulu, with sales offices in Vantaa and Turku. Meka Pro products are widely used in industrial, power plant, and construction projects across Northern and Central Europe, as well as the Baltic countries. Their systems are modular, durable, and designed for long life cycles, with extensive testing to ensure quality. Cablex Oy operates as a supplier and distributor of cables, wiring, and cable management accessories, including cable trays, for the machine and equipment construction industry. The company is part of the global HELUKABEL GmbH network, providing access to a wide range of electrical, automation, and cabling products. Cablex Oy focuses on customer-oriented service, offering product knowledge, technical support, and maintenance services for mechanical, hydraulic, and battery-powered tools. Summary For Finnish cable tray solutions, Meka Pro Oy is a primary manufacturer with a strong Nordic and European presence, offering a broad range of cable trays and support systems. Cablex Oy complements this by providing distribution, technical support, and access to international cable products. Both companies serve industrial, construction, and automation sectors, making them key players in Finland's cable management market.
