

Where can I buy fiber optic couplers cheaply

AI Overview

You can buy fiber optic couplers at competitive prices from online electronics suppliers like FS, RS Components, EFB-Elektronik, and marketplaces such as Amazon. Recommended Suppliers

1. FS (Fiberstore) FS offers a wide range of low-loss fiber optic adapters and couplers with multiple connector options. They are known for good repeatability and durability, making them suitable for both professional and hobbyist applications. FS often provides competitive pricing, especially for bulk orders, which can help reduce costs per unit (<https://>) .
2. RS Components RS stocks authenticated fiber optic couplers from world-class manufacturers. They provide transparent pricing, bulk purchasing options, and fast dispatch from their Texas distribution center. RS is ideal if you need reliable supply and technical support while keeping costs reasonable for larger projects (<https://us.rs-online.com/electronic-components/optoelectronics/fiber-optic-products/fiber-optic-couplers/?m=1>) .
3. EFB-Elektronik EFB-Elektronik specializes in fiber optic cabling and offers a comprehensive selection of couplers, including LC, SC, MTP, singlemode, multimode, and E2000 types. They provide high-quality products with low attenuation and options for custom designs. Contacting them directly may yield discounts for bulk or specialized orders (<https://>) .
4. Amazon Amazon provides a convenient marketplace for SC, LC, and ST fiber optic couplers. While prices vary, you can often find budget-friendly options and read user reviews to ensure quality. Amazon is suitable for small quantities or quick purchases (<https://+optic+coupler>) .

Tips for Buying Cheaply

- Compare bulk pricing: Suppliers like FS and RS offer discounts for larger orders.
- Check for refurbished or surplus stock: Some suppliers sell surplus couplers at lower prices.
- Consider connector type and fiber mode: Singlemode couplers are gen...
